

SYMBOL FOR ALL SAINTS
(HARVEST of the Lord)

This is a symbol taken directly from the parables of our Lord in Saint Matthew XIII; 30 and 39. He talks about his own harvest, the food wheat (the faithful) are held within the crown of their reward surrounded by the symbols of the Saviour in whose faith they lived and died. The color shows the stems red; the ears, gold; the crown, gold; the letters red; the background , white and the edges, red. All-Saints Day is November 1.
